No football coach has won more games at Lawrence than the legendary Ron Roberts. He coached the Vikings for 20 seasons and compiled a record of 121-54-1. He won six Midwest Conference championships and led the Vikings to the semifinals of the 1981 NCAA Division III playoffs.

Bernie Hesleton gets a ride on the shoulders of his players after the Vikings defeated Ripon College 34-13 on Nov. 2, 1946. Lawrence won the Midwest Conference championship that season and Hesleton's teams claimed five more league titles. Hesleton compiled a career record of 111-79-5.

Mark Catlin is one of the most unique characters in the history of Lawrence football. Catlin won five conference championships while coaching the Vikings from 1909-18 and again from 1924-27. The "Coach of Champions," Catlin served in the Wisconsin Assembly and worked as an attorney until his death in 1956.
