Announcements

New Satellite in LI

A new satellite dish has been installed at the International House. This dish allows ISS to order a variety of channels (i.e. Chinese, Korean, German, etc.) from around the world. The list of channels is available on the ISS website: http://www.lawrence.edu/dept/student_dean/international_services/inhouse/reading.shtml

At this time, ISS does not plan to subscribe to any particular channels. However, students will now have the option to order channels through ISS to watch over a specified period of time. Students will be responsible for paying for the channels they order. Please contact the ISS office for additional details.

Writing about Holiday Celebrations

The Admissions Office is looking for international students who are interested in writing about their favorite holiday or celebration in their respective countries. The descriptions will be displayed in the Admissions Office.

This is a good chance for you to share your culture with the Lawrence community. If you are interested, please contact Tim for more information.

OPT Reminder

For those students who are expecting to graduate this year, please feel free to stop by LI House to see Tim if you have any questions about OPT.

Also, if you are graduating in June and haven't done so already, please complete your
