

BLACK HISTORY MONTH 2010!

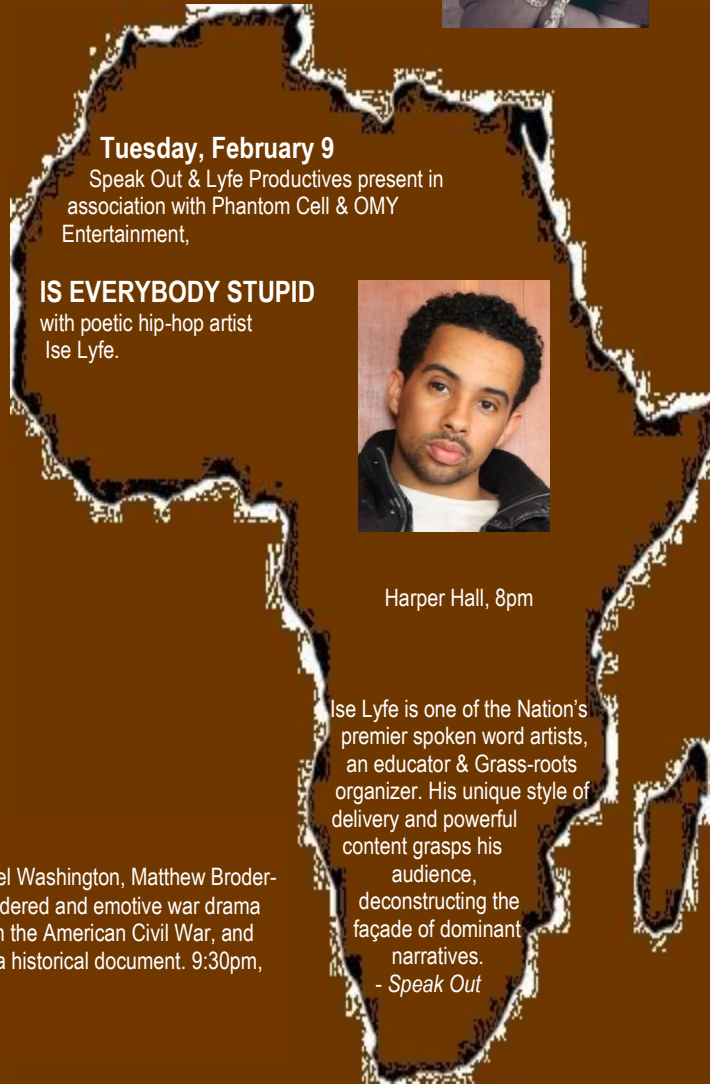

Saturday, February 6
Film – “Skin” by Sophie Okonedo, Sam Neill, and Alice Krige. One of the most moving stories to emerge from apartheid South Africa.
 4pm - Cinema - WCC

Thursday February 11
 Stimulate your mind with the musical experience of world-renowned flautist & lecturer,
Galen. 8pm - Esch Studio - WCC

Saturday, February 20
Celebrate! Cultural Expressions 2010. Celebrate! is a festival of the talents, achievements, and accomplishments by people of the African Diaspora. Dinner & Show 5:30-8pm. WCC 225 - Hurvis Room. General Public, $7. LU Community FREE.

Tuesday, February 9
 Speak Out & Lyfe Productives present in association with Phantom Cell & OMY Entertainment,

IS EVERYBODY STUPID
 with poetic hip-hop artist Ise Lyfe.

Harper Hall, 8pm

Ise Lyfe is one of the Nation's premier spoken word artists, an educator & Grass-roots organizer. His unique style of delivery and powerful content grasps his audience, deconstructing the façade of dominant narratives.
 - Speak Out

Wednesday, February 17
Floetry Open Night Mic for Spoken Word and Poetry.
 9pm-11:30pm - Café

Thursday, February 18
Dinner in the Diversity Center: Soul Food/Afro-Caribbean Dishes!
 6pm - Diversity Center

Monday, February 8
Film – “Glory,” by Denzel Washington, Matthew Broderick. An exceptionally well-rendered and emotive war drama that addresses episodes from the American Civil War, and has most of the trappings of a historical document. 9:30pm, Cinema - WCC

Friday, February 26
Parlé Poetry Tour: The Lawrence Difference for Haiti, followed by the Black Out party from 11pm-2am on the 4th floor Hiatt lounge.

Tuesday, February 23
Identity Forum Series4 - "Race: The face of diversity and digging deeper..."
 Documentary followed by discussion.
 7pm - WCC - Cinema

Brought to you by: Office of Multicultural Affairs (OMA), Community on Diversity Affairs (CODA), Black Organization of Students (BOS) & Afro-Caribbean Club (ACC).