

Helpful Resources for Math Tutors

Elementary/Middle School

A+ Math- a website with games, worksheets, and printable flashcards (including an option to customize your own flash cards to your tutee's needs). Covers addition through basic Algebra.

<http://www.aplusmath.com/>

Super Teacher Worksheets- print off all sorts of worksheets including good word problem worksheets

<http://www.superteacherworksheets.com/word-problems.html>

Math.About- printable pdf worksheets organized by grade level (1st – 8th grades)

http://math.about.com/od/wordproblem1/Worksheets_for_Word_Problems_Various_grades.htm

Math Playground- an interactive site you could work together with your tutee on

<http://www.mathplayground.com/gsmbegin.html>

Middle School/High School

S.O.S. Mathematics- good content refresher for tutors, and has practice exams for tutees pertaining to algebra, trigonometry, calculus, etc.

<http://www.sosmath.com/>

Finite Mathematics and Applied Calculus Resource Page- for upper level high school math-lots of resources (including quizzes) for finite mathematics and calculus. Click "topic summaries" tab for an overview of what the site can help with.

<http://www.zweigmedia.com/RealWorld/>

Karl's Calculus Tutor- help on doing various types of calculus problems. Click "table of contents" tab for a list of topics.

<http://www.karlscalculus.org/>

Other Potentially Useful Sites:

- www.mathgoodies.com Interactive lessons, homework help, worksheets and forums.
- www.coolmath.com/lessons/index.html A complete set of online lessons and exercises.
- www.funbrain.com/numbers.html Mostly for younger kids.
- www.math.com Online lessons on a range of topics.
- <http://grapher.hrw.com/grapher.htm> Tool to create graphs and charts - requires Shockwave.
- www.calculator.com/calcs/calc_sci.html Interactive version of a scientific calculator.
- <http://abcteach.com/directory/basics/math/> Lots of math printables here.
- <http://abeflorida.org/guide01-1.htm> Lesson Activities at different levels. http