

Volunteer at Boys & Girls Club of the Fox Valley!

Description:

The Club is a safe place where kids and teens can come to enjoy themselves and their friends. Club members have the opportunity to learn, grow, give back to the community, discover their needs, set goals, and meet new friends. The Club offers an ideal environment for volunteers who love kids.

Address:

117 S Locust St.
Appleton, WI 54914

Directions:

Head west on E College Ave for about 0.7 miles, turn left at S Memorial Dr and take first right onto W Lawrence St. Destination is on the right.

Volunteer Opportunities:

Musical volunteers needed to teach musical instruments (violin, guitar, drums, piano) or voice lessons, create a sambista group or perform at The Club. Dancing volunteers needed to organize and teach dance routines for a dance recital or teach hip hop, ballet, jazz or tap, African or modern dance. Volunteers can also organize dance competitions (suggestions include So You Think You Can Dance or other dance shows). Drama volunteers needed to teach an acting class, stage movement, stage design, costumes/props, or makeup. Volunteers can also organize an acting lesson (for example, on Shakespeare). Other volunteers needed to lead talks about global or environmental issues. Volunteers with other skills such as photography, art, yoga, Pilates, or kickboxing can lead a lesson.

Qualifications/requirements:

Volunteer must have sufficient knowledge of subject.

Time Commitment:

Time commitment is flexible depending on volunteer's schedule.

Contact:

jelissa.s.thomas@lawrence.edu