Acquisition information

Materials of the collection have been collected by the Lawrence University Archives; the date that this began is unknown. How the materials came to the Archives prior to 2005 is also unknown.

Accruals

New materials for the collection are acquired by the Archives on a weekly basis and are added to the collection.

Processing history

Processed by Julia Stringfellow, 2008-2009.

Collection Scope and Content Summary

The collection is comprised of files on Lawrence University people, including administration, faculty, staff, students, and visitors to the university. Materials in the collection include biographical information, correspondence, personnel sheets, newspaper and magazine articles, and photographs. The vertical file serves as a representation of people who have been part of Lawrence University since its creation in 1847.

Collection Arrangement

This collection is arranged alphabetically by last name of person.

Separation Note

Folders were removed from the collection if there was already a collection of papers for the individual. For example, folders on former Lawrence presidents were removed from the vertical file and added to that president's collection of records.
