General instructions: The application should be typed and submitted to the Associate Dean of the Faculty (Sampson House). Attach additional sheets if necessary. See the current Course Catalog for additional information on academic internships.

Application deadline: End of the fifth week of the term before the start of the internship.

NAME__________________________________________ CLASS__________________________

CAMPUS ADDRESS______________________________________________________________

PHONE__________________________________________________________

1) Describe in detail the work experience which is to be completed as part of the internship.
2) Describe the academic component of the internship. Your description should include a preliminary bibliography and general outline of research or creative project you plan to undertake. Explain the relationship between the academic and work components of the internship and describe the written products on which the faculty advisor will base assignment of a grade. The Committee will assume that internships are for one course credit unless otherwise indicated.
3) DEPARTMENTAL APPROVAL

This internship represents an appropriate project for departmental credit in

Chair

4) SIGNATURE OF SUPERVISORS

I have discussed the proposed internship with the applicant and I agree to supervise the project.

Faculty Supervisor

Internship Supervisor

5) Applicant's Signature  Date