

People of Color
EMPOWERMENT
Circle

This is a space for students of color to connect and build community on campus. The purpose is to allow healing and foster empowerment. This discussion-based series is meant to celebrate and explore identities while strengthening skills necessary to thrive at Lawrence University.

September 27th 11am-12pm

Topic: Microaggressions and strategies to cope

October 18th 11am-12pm

Topic: Transitions as roles shift and change from adult to child and back

Location: Memorial 106

RSVP requested as light lunch will be provided

For more information Contact

Katie Huskey - katie.huskey@lawrence.edu

Krystal Light - krystal.e.light@lawrence.edu

