In addition, he recently authored an article on key principles for American diplomats assigned to Afghanistan, Iraq, and future counter-insurgency campaigns. Last fall Amend located his ancestral village of Walter in the Saratov region west of the Volga River in Russia. As a student Amend participated in a Lawrence Slavic field trip in 1979 and said that odyssey "pushed me in the direction of a career as a foreign service office with the U.S. Department of State."

61 M-D NEXT REUNION: OCTOBER 2010

PRISCILLA PARSCHE MATHESON, Pinnacle, N.C., is selling her house to be closer to family in Tennessee. She wrote, "I'm getting to the creaky/hurting age. Would like to be able to holler for help at times — although I can still open the pickle/peanut butter jars."

67 NEXT REUNION: OCTOBER 2012

GERRY MAX, Madison, Wis., is a consultant on the Chase the Horizon Project, a 13-part adventure series and children's animated series that focuses on world geography, history, and culture. The series is based on the world travels of Richard Halliburton.

70 NEXT REUNION: 2010

KRISTIN JENSEN BRYAN, Appleton, Wis., wrote, "I'm not even thinking about retirement, since my daughter begins college life at LU this fall. Like her Mom, she will be a 'Connie,' aiming for a degree in music education. Our son is pretty much 'out of the nest' and living and attending school in Milwaukee. I still do some horn playing for the Fox Valley Symphony, Wisconsin Symphonic Winds, and Appleton City Band, as well as performing regularly in church."

77 NEXT REUNION: 2013

HELEN T. BARTLETT, New Haven, Conn., has worked at the Yale Music Library for 25 years. She has two sons, Andrew, 13, and William, 8.

ANN M. HOPKINS, Eureka Springs, Ark., wrote, "Tom and I retired last year, sold our home in Minnesota and moved to Eureka Springs, Arkansas. We built a home on Beaver Lake and are thoroughly enjoying retirement! We have lots of projects around here and interests to pursue now that we have time and energy. We'll both be doing some writing when we're not waterskiing, and we plan to take advantage of the many opportunities to learn new skills like pottery and woodworking."

MARY DEGROOT LAMBRECHT, Neenah, Wis., was recently elected to the board of directors for the Wisconsin Association of Marriage & Family Therapy, where she is editor of the association's quarterly newsletter.

CORRECTIONS Lawrence Today, Summer 2008

The In Memoriam entry for George P. Mueller '43 listed his address as Norwalk, Conn. Mueller resided in Neenah, Wis.

The Class Notes entry for Alyson Richey should have read:
Alyson Richey '06 is currently in the master's of education program at Marquette University in Milwaukee, Wis. Her fiancé, Phil Keith '07, is in medical school at the Medical College of Wisconsin. They plan to be married in June 2009.

Lawrence Today regrets the errors.
