

BELOW: Lawrence students enjoy nature's classroom on a beautiful spring day

GO FIGURE

2600

Applications received from high school seniors and transfer students considering Lawrence University — the largest applicant pool in Lawrence history. Lawrence hopes to accept approximately 370 of those students who applied into the Class of '12 arriving in September.

600

Truckloads of concrete — 23 million pounds — poured at the site of the new Campus Center, scheduled to open in 2009. See www.lawrence.edu/taskforce/campuscenter/construction for a live webcam look.

8,700

People who have rated the issues at MyElectionDecision.org, the Lawrence Web site designed to encourage students and all voters to become actively engaged in the upcoming 2008 presidential election.

59,758

Electronic books available through Lawrence University's Seeley G. Mudd library.

14

The number of degrees below zero on January 20, 2008, the coldest day endured by Lawrence students, faculty, and staff this winter.

46

Issues of Lawrence Today designed by Marsha Tuchscherer who retired in March after more than 11 years as art director at Lawrence. The Communications staff wishes her happiness as she enjoys a more relaxed life as an equestrian and painter. She is represented by Edgewood Orchard Galleries in Fish Creek, Wis.