44 65TH REUNION: JUNE 19-21, 2009

HELEN SCHREIBER ALLEN, Mesa, Ariz., recently enjoyed a week-long cruise in the Caribbean and a 17-day Viking River Cruise in China. She still does historic walks in Fish Creek during the summer.

54 55TH REUNION: JUNE 19-21, 2009

ANN LAPHAM KRAMER, Portland, Ore., wrote, "Bud and I have downsized four times and we now own a downtown condo of less than 1,000 square feet. We're across the street from the art museum with a Safeway on the corner and the trolley on both sides of our building. Our lives are simplified and very free!"

THOMAS O. KRUEGER, San Diego, Calif., said, "Retirement in San Diego is great, probably the best climate in the nation. It allows activities and entertainment, common to all. After all, retirement is a class whose instruction takes years to learn. And then, interacting with younger ones, we begin to see how the grades awarded involve the awareness of not how things are different, but what of ourselves we can share with them."

CHARLOTTE PETERS KUNKEL, Sarasota, Fla., reported that her husband, Roger, was the recipient of an Alumni Achievement Award from Westminster College in Fulton, Mo.

ROLAND M. VOGEL AND BOBBIE BURN VOGEL '55, Lake Forest, Ill., were recently featured in the Chicago Sun-Times. At age 75, both graduated from Kendall College's School of Culinary Arts and started a catering business, Apron Strings. The pair's specialty is serving elegant dinner parties, brunches, or even hor d'oeuvres for book club gatherings.

57 NEXT REUNION: JUNE 2012

DAVID S. HATHAWAY, Waupaca, Wis., wrote that he is “thriving on life in Waupaca, the epitome of small town America. My wife, Lenna died in 2005, but my children and grandchildren are close emotionally and ‘sort of’ geographically. I see Chuck Merry often — and he’s already planning our 60th reunion.”

60 NEXT REUNION: JUNE 18-20, 2010

HELEN BUSCHER FRANKE, San Marino, Calif., joined Ginny Schumann on the Queen Elizabeth II for its last trip out of South Hampton. She wrote, “The Queen came to see us off as well as Margaret Thatcher and Prince Phillip.”

SANDRA NICHOLS GILBERTSON, St. Cloud, Minn., wrote, “Between a total left hip replacement and a nasty car accident — it’s no more motorcycle for me. That’s a bummer! However, I have a customized wheelchair that is somewhat a ‘Harley.’ Anyone want to do a wheelchair race? Fun is where you find it.”

JAMES C. LEATHAM, Sister Bay, Wis., retired 2001 and returned to Door County, Wis., where he is a landscape oil painter.

DIANE THATE MARTIN, Green Bay, Wis., has been retired for 13 years. She knits blankets for babies of unwed mothers and still plays the piano and organ at church, bass clarinet in the winter for the Allouze Band, and in the summer for the De Pere City Band.

PETER A. VOY, El Dorado Hills, Calif., and his wife, Jan, run Furniture for Families, Inc., a nonprofit organization they founded eight years ago. Since opening, they have provided free furniture to more than 6,000 needy individuals in the Sacramento area. Their free time is divided between spoiling 12 grandchildren and hanging out at their cabin in the Sierras.

62 NEXT REUNION: JUNE 2012

SUSAN LEWIS ROSE, Pleasanton, Calif., is general manager of the Fremont Symphony Orchestra. She oversees all orchestra programs including evening concerts, children’s concerts, the Young Artist Competition, in-school music ensembles, and community outreach activities.

63 NEXT REUNION: JUNE 19-21, 2009

ALLEN R. BJORNSON, Evanston, Ill., wrote, “Marti and I continue to work. Our two children settled on the East Coast in Mass. and N.J. after going to school out east. We have two grandchildren who we do not see as often as we would like. They grow up so fast. Life is good.”

ERLAN S. BLISS, Danville, Calif., has been retired from full time work since 2001, but continues part-time at Lawrence Livermore National Laboratory. Since 1995, he has been a part of the team designing and building the National Ignition Facility (NIF), a football stadium sized laser facility for demonstrating laser-driven fusion (<https://lasers.llnl.gov>). In his free time, he plays trombone in a community band and a nearby big band, as well as participating in various other musical activities. He has four children and five grandchildren. He recently traveled to Michigan to visit classmates Mark Thomas and Skip and Lois (Holmwall) Moseley.

JULIE HUTCHISON BOLTON, Edina, Minn., is in a phased retirement plan at Augsburg College where she’s been a professor for 34 years. She is also a docent at the Minneapolis Institute of Arts, and enjoys babysitting her five grandchildren.

Chicago attorney ANTON "TONY" VALUKAS '65, has been appointed the examiner in the bankruptcy proceedings of Lehman Brothers Holdings, Inc. Valukas, a specialist in major civil and white collar criminal litigation, is leading the independent investigation of the events that led to the company's record bankruptcy filing, including payments and other financial transactions Lehman completed in the days before the company's collapse.

Valukas has more than four decades of legal experience, serving as a U.S. attorney in Chicago and as a defense attorney. He is currently the chairman of Jenner & Block LLP.

CHALLONER MORSE BROWN, Baileys Harbor, Wis., works at Whitefish Dunes State Park during the summer. She enjoys her grandchildren (seven girls, three boys, ages 3-17) at a week of "Grandma's Camp" every summer. She still sings, is active in the Episcopal church, the YMCA (teaching swimming, life guarding), the Democratic Party, and at home cooking, canning, knitting, and writing. She also enjoys traveling.

JAMES A. BUSHNER, Bayside, Wis., wrote, "I've been doing a lot of arranging for orchestra, especially songs of the 70s and the Beatles. I've reached Master Adjudicator (1997) and enjoy judging District and State Music Festivals around Wisconsin as well as giving orchestra clinics in Wisconsin. I still sub teach, especially third graders, who are still so enthusiastic about learning. I also like working with sixth graders, who are very kind about correcting my mis-pronunciations of poetry terms. Life is good."

ILONA TAUCK COFMAN, Santa Fe, N.M., and her husband recently completed a 24,000-mile, five-month journey in a 2002 Land Rover Defender from France through Poland, the Baltic states, to St. Petersburg, Moscow, and eastward through Siberia to take Baikal then through Mongolia, returning through Central Asia (including the Pamir Highway along the Walshaw Corridor), Volgograd (Stalingrad) Ukraine, Rosnauia, the Balkans, Italy, and France.

BRIAN R. FAY, Ocala, Fla., has been retired since January 2003. He can watch the space shuttle lift off (100 miles away) while sitting in his back yard.

VICTORIA AGEE GROSER and Luke Groser '64, Shorewood, Wis., are retired and getting ready to move to Portland, Ore. They enjoy spending time together traveling and visiting their children and eight (soon to be nine) grandchildren.

E. KAY LANDON, Sun City West, Ariz., traveled by train from Vancouver to Halifax, Nova Scotia with sight-seeing stops in between. She is looking forward to a return trip to Nova Scotia and Prince Edward Island.

GEORGE C. MCKANN, Park Ridge, Ill., is still practicing corporate and securities law at a firm with 12 offices in the U.S. and approximately 750 attorneys. He is a trustee of the Vermont Law School, which has one of the premier energy and environmental law programs in the United States. He is married to Alice Taussig McKann '62.

LOIS LAMMERS MCNAMARA, Orlando, Fla., volunteers as a master gardener and as a Bram Bowl coach at Valencia Community College. She also enjoys traveling.

THOMAS J. SCHINABECK, Appleton, Wis., wrote that he is, "Still retired, still married, still gray (with patches of pink). Wistfully hoping to once again being as supple as a slinky."

DOROTHY POLZIN STALEY, Gainesville, Fla., wrote that she is, "putting final touches on her novel, Come Good Home. Summary: Two months pregnant and single, scientific aide Jesse Bookman flees the Arctic. On her way south, she decides to keep her baby. An Eskimo storyteller and a young mother from Yukon territory guide Jesse on a parallel journey of self discovery. One year later, new mom, Jesse, returns to the Arctic ready to explore the keys to human survival. Next step — marketing!"

SUSAN COLE STRATTON, Calgary, Canada, retired in 2002 after 31 years as an English professor at the University of Calgary and took up politics. She wrote, "I've been a candidate twice, deputy leader and president of the Green Party of Alberta. As a dual citizen, I have twice as much fun being a political junkie. No Green has ever been elected in Canada, so I was in no danger, but I enjoy pushing the Green agenda. On the third try, I finally figured out the marriage thing. Maybe I've learned a thing or two, but also Bernie's a great guy, and it's his children who are producing grandchildren for our pleasure — three pre-schoolers. We're both active in the Unitarian Church and in our co-housing community."

DANIEL J. TAYLOR, Silverthorne, Colo., wrote, "Life at 9,600 feet is just right."

BARBARA AMEND VAN METRE, Bonita Springs, Fla., spends her summers in Green Lake, Wis., and said, "If anyone is in the area, we'd love to get together."

JUDITH A. WILMES, Readstown, Wis., raised sheep for fine wool (and some meat) for more than 20 years in Kickapoo River Country and stays busy trying to keep 18+ acres intact. She also served three terms on Vernon County board.

64 NEXT REUNION: JUNE 19-21, 2009

MARY REINHOLZ ANDERSON, Beloit, Wis., retired from teaching/tutoring and took a month-long trip to England and Scotland to celebrate her 40th anniversary with special English friends. She volunteers with her church and civic groups, and said she's "as busy as ever."

REV. GRETHE HALLBERG BARBER, Washougal, Wash., wrote, "Since I retired in 2007, I am now ministering more than when I was working. Does that make sense? In my free time I continue to read, water-exercise, travel (2007 to China, 2008 to India), avoid housework whenever possible; sandwiched between grandmothering two handsome grandsons. More to come."

PETER W. BARILE, Morristown, Tenn., lectures on global business at Carson Newnan College and will teach a senior class in international business this fall. Several times a year he travels to the Far East. His son, Jason, has two sets of twins, ages six and one.

JOHN B. BARTHOLOMEW, JR., Gypsum, Colo., has been retired for 10 years after working as a real estate appraiser in Colorado Springs. He has 12 grandchildren who keep him and his wife busy. They spend their winters on South Padre Island each year and welcome a visit from any member of the Class of '64.

MARYELLEN WOLFE BIEDER, Bloomington, Ind., enjoys teaching Spanish literature, attending symposia and conventions (especially in Spain), and publishing.

KATHRYN GEBHART BOOTH, Lansing, Mich., is enjoying retirement. She is thankful to be able to be too busy!

LINDA SCHARMER CHAMBERS, Holland, Mich., and her husband, Jerry, enjoy "adventure" travel and have been to the Arctic, Peru (Machu Picchu and the Amazon), Galapagos Islands, Costa Rica, Chile/Patagonia (and the Southern Ice Fields). They are both very active in volunteer work in their community.

MARY OSWALD FOLKMAN, Laurel, Mont., is in the second year of establishing her piano studio. She received national certification as a piano teacher from the MTNA in November. She is also a part-time tutor in Billings, Mont. She had successful knee replacement surgery in April 2008.

LUKE GROSER, Shorewood, Wis., is a retired high school social studies teacher. He is married to Victoria Agee Groser '63.

JOHN M. HARTONG, Peacham, Vt., retired as a surgeon in July. He spends his time breeding, raising, training, showing, and selling Rocky Mountain horses, as well as raising beef cattle and hay on a 130 acre farm in the Northeast Kingdom of Vermont. Visit his Web site: www.rockymountainhorsevermont.com

HOWARD H. HUTCHINSON, Rhinelander, Wis., and his wife, Linda Strane Hutchinson, wrote that they are happy to be living in the Northwoods of Wisconsin.

BARBARA IVES ISAAC and Walter J. Isaac Lakewood, Colo., enjoy skiing, hiking, birding, bridge, and choir. This past summer they spent time in Door County with Tom Jeffery and his wife, Kathy and Rik and Margot Warch. They are planning a trip to Norway in June.

MOLLIE HERZOG KEYS, White Bear Lake, Minn., has three grown, married children and four grandchildren. She serves on several boards, including Eagle Valley Bank, the Minneapolis Branch of AAUW, and the Deer Lake Conservancy.

PATRICIA JOYCE LAYBOURN, Bloomington, Minn., has been retired since June 2007. Recent travels include a spring 2008 trip to Europe, where she spent three weeks in Italy and five days in a cabin by Geiranger Fjord, Norway.

HARRY N. MACLEAN, Denver, Colo., wrote, "My new book will be out in fall 2009. It is titled The Past is Never Dead, The Trial of James Ford Seale and Mississippi Struggle for Redemption. The book weaves together the trial of ex-Klansman Seale with Mississippi efforts to overcome its past and be accepted in civilized society."

LINDA AXELSON PACKARD, Galena, Ill., wrote, "Retirement for us means we have moved from the very eastern edge of Illinois, within sight of Lake Michigan, to the very western edge, five miles from the Mississippi River. Very different waters, very different communities. I am enjoying the hills, a slower way of life, helping at a small Episcopal parish (rejoicing in NOT being in charge), walking the dog, playing with two grandsons (eight and 10), hosting all adult children whenever they have time to stop by. Life is good."

JUDY BEZANSON RUTH, Cedar Rapids, Iowa, is retired and spends her time between Cedar Rapids, Iowa, Mesa, Ariz., and Clam Lake, Wis. She enjoys spending time with her children and grandchildren "all over the country."

CHARLES E. SCHULZE, JR., Palatine, Ill., is taking Spanish, history, and computer courses at the local community college. Daughter Anne is an anesthesiologist in Mankato, Minn., and Kate is about to start a residency also in anesthesiology.

JACK D. SMUCKLER, Wayzata, Minn., is semi-retired, spending summers in Minneapolis and winters at a second home in Phoenix at Seville Golf and Country Club. He wrote, "The Web site SmucklerArchitects.com illustrates some of my work during my 30 year career as an architect/builder. I am also featured in the book, Leading Residential Architects. I am happily married and we travel extensively."

NANCY WILEY THORNTON, Schenectady, N.Y., works as a consultant. She and her husband have four children and six grandchildren.

CURTIS B. VEVANG and SUSAN WITLER VEVANG, Palatine, Ill., returned to the Chicago area in 2001 to be closer to family. They wrote, "We have enjoyed our renewed friendship with Katy Hoehn and Karen (O'Keeffe) McDonald and her husband, Bob. Moving has been rejuvenating."

65 NEXT REUNION: JUNE 19-21, 2009

ROBERTA BASSETT CORSON, Saratoga, Calif., has a psychotherapy practice where she works three full days a week. She enjoys visiting her grandchildren (and children), as well as exercising and snowshoeing in the mountains. Recent travels include England in 2007 and France in 2008. She and her husband recently retired from their ministry after a long career together.

RICHARD C. DETIENNE, Appleton, Wis., is retired and serves on the regional board of directors for Goodwill Industries. He enjoys playing racquetball, tennis, and golf and visiting his daughter Jennifer in Missoula, Mont. He is married to Susan Taylor Detienne '68.

SUSAN GILMAN FERGUSON, Oro Valley, Ariz., is a volunteer naturalist at Sabino Canyon in Tucson, Ariz., where she teaches environmental education to students in first through sixth grades. She is planning a trip to Miguel Aleman in Sonora, Mexico with VOSH (Volunteer Optometrists) to provide eye-care and glasses to residents. She enjoys art and sports activities such as hiking, biking, skiing, and sailing.

SUSAN NELSON GOLDSMITH, Phoenix, wrote, "I finished my Ph.D. just before getting my medicare card. It's the LU life-long learning tradition!"

CHARLES A. HOFFMAN, Minneapolis, is a retired attorney. He has gotten back to his true passion — building guitars. Visit his Web site: www.hoffmanguitars.com

THEODORE M. KATZOFF, Hermosa Beach, Calif., wrote about three major events he experienced this past year. "Number one, I became a first time grandfather! My daughter, Anya gave birth to a wonderful girl, Sirayna, who is now 20 months old. Number two, Liz Cole '63, P.K. Allen, and I did a performance of Let Me Count the Ways at Björklunden this past October. And, number three, I was appointed to the Alumni Board of Directors for a four-year term. I'm on the Student Relations Committee."

BARBARA SHOYS KAVANAUGH, Clinton, Wis., is a retired teacher. She is working part-time doing clerical work for a digital graphics firm in Edgerton. She wrote, "I'm a Badger hockey fan, still a Bears fan, but spend my happiest days with my 2½ year old granddaughter."

DUNCAN C. MALLOCH, Minnetonka, Minn., plays piano and sings jazz and blues with his daughter Molly at small clubs in the Twin Cities.

TODD J. MITCHELL, Bonita Springs, Fla., enjoys a very active life in Florida, with league tennis, golf, and exercising at the fitness center. He and his wife have six sons and are awaiting the arrival of their seventh grandchild.

BYRON J. NORDSTROM, Le Sueur, Minn., recently retired. He is a volunteer builder with Habitat for Humanity and plans to write a book on Sweden between the World Wars (1920-1939).

JILL M. PARSON, Wasilla, Alaska, recently built a new home. This summer she wrote that she "plans to garden, fly our airplanes, fish, and enjoy this beautiful state."

GAY PEARSON, Falmouth, Maine, wrote, "In 2008 I had the great fortune of discovering that the innovative contemporary American Jazz pianist Vardan Ovsepien teaches in my hometown of Newburyport, Mass. I had been feeling stuck and stagnant as a jazz pianist and after a couple of lessons with him, I knew he was just what I needed for direction into new realms and heights. My Chesapeake Bay Sharpie (wooden day sailer) has been a huge responsibility to take care of and refinish, but the sailing here in Casco Bay has made it all worth the expense, distress and time spent."

JO ROBBINS, Valley Cottage, N.Y., has been teaching dance at Westchester Community College in Westchester County, N.Y., since 1975. In May 2008 she was awarded the Cab Calloway Lifetime Achievement Award for her outstanding contribution to the Performing Arts in Westchester. Some of her favorite adventures include: rafting down the Colorado River through the Grand Canyon, walking across England coast to coast from the Irish Sea to the North Sea, and going on a safari in Tanzania, Africa.

JERIE SCHROEDER TORBECK, Louisville, Ky., retired July first, and wrote, "Golf, volunteer work and lots of travel occupy much of my time."

RICHARD H. VANDERBLOEMEN, Keaau, Hawaii, wrote that he is "Enjoying Hawaii growing plants, flowers, fruits, fish ponds, and swimming in safe waters. In 1966 I studied opera at La Scala, Milan with the Maestro of Pavarotti, and John Sutherland and later Vienna State Opera with the teacher of Elizabeth Schwartzkoph, and also at the Met in New York with the teacher of Mario Lanza. I taught high school and college and although retired, I'm still singing and teaching."

THOMAS M. VERICH, Oxford, Miss., retired in 2004 as a professor at the University of Mississippi. He spends six months a year at his home in San Miguel de Allende, Mexico.

FREDERICK S. VOSS, Alexandria, Va., wrote, "To mark the election of 2008, the Abraham Lincoln Library and Museum in Springfield, Ill., published Packaging Presidents: 200 Years of Campaigns and Candidates, a book authored largely by me. The volume was produced in tandem with an exhibition that took the viewer through American presidential elections from the 1820s through the 1990s."

67 NEXT REUNION: 2012

JOYCE ANDERSON BEYER, Green Bay, Wis., is a retired teacher. She and her husband, Tom, travel with Elderhostel and spent three-plus weeks there in the Spring of 2008. She wrote, "While there, we visited Alice Holinger '66 in Wasilla. Alaska is great!"

THOMAS K. COUNTRYMAN, Elmhurst, Ill., works part-time at the Elmhurst Public Library. He enjoys opera, the Chicago Symphony Orchestra, and other concerts.

J. B. DEROSSET, Miami, Fla., just bought a second home in Asheville, N.C., and will live there "more than seasonally" because of plans to start another business there.

KATHY KRENDL '72, is making history. She has been chosen as the first female president of Otterbein College. Otterbein, founded in 1847, is a private, liberal arts college in Westerville, Ohio, with an enrollment of 3,100 students.

Krendl is currently executive vice president and provost of Ohio University, in Athens, Ohio. She is credited with implementing initiatives to increase the school's retention rate, coordinating efforts to boost research investments, and creating and implementing a new strategic plan for the university.

She will assume the presidency at Otterbein in July 2009.

CAROL JOHNSRUD HANSEN, Hibbing, Minn., moved back to Hibbing in 2001. She recently spent a weekend in Milwaukee visiting her son, Chris, his wife, Pam, and their two girls, Alexandria (six) and Christina (three). A breast cancer survivor, she did the Susan G. Komen run in Minneapolis on Mother's Day 2008.

PATRICK R. KROOS, Wanchai, China, is the proud grandfather of a granddaughter, Amber Nadine, born July 4, 2008.

GREGORY R. LEE, Appleton, Wis., retired after 42 years in education. He wrote that he is, "enjoying six grandchildren all in the local area. Using my time subbing, mentoring, tutoring, working with teen boy groups in church, and other volunteering. Nancy and I have celebrated 42 years of marriage."

PHILIP A. METZGER, Bethlehem, Pa., retired in 2006 after 20 years as curator of special collections at Lehigh University in Bethlehem. He is a volunteer at the Moravian Archives in Bethlehem, the official archives of the Moravian Church in North America. He is a timpanist in an amateur pops orchestra of mostly retired players, and since last spring has been a member of the Lehigh University Philharmonic's percussion section. He freelances for the local paper, writing about classical music events and reviewing concerts. He is married to Margery Homfeld Metzger.

JOAN OBRECHT MOERTL, Hubertus, Wis., taught elementary and middle school music for 32 years and directed church vocal and handbell choirs for 25 years.

JANE E. SHERMAN, Westport, Conn., is pursuing an M.F.A. in creative writing at Fairfield University.

69 NEXT REUNION: JUNE 19-21, 2009

THOMAS R. DE MARK, Paradise Valley, Ariz., founded Market Studies, Inc., a provider of proprietary market timing indicators. He also serves as a special advisor to Steve Cohen (SAC Capital). Before that he worked as an advisor to investment companies from around the globe. He is the author of three best-selling investment books, has been a regular speaker at worldwide investment conferences, and has appeared on national television. He has been married for 35 years and has six children.

PRISCILLA PETERSON WEAVER, Jacksonville, Ore., wrote, "Steve and I took early retirements in 2004 and moved from Chicago to Oregon, planning to garden (him) and play the piano (me). By accident, we became shepherds and now have more than 100 rare little sheep, a somewhat endangered ancient breed with interesting genetics for the retired molecular biologist. Jane Fisher and I connected over blackberry pie — she has the best pie Web site and blackberries are a noxious weed on our farm — Lawrence prepared us for anything."

JEAN E. DELAUCHE, Maryland Heights, Mo., moved to the St. Louis area from the Dayton, Ohio, area in February 2009.

86 NEXT REUNION: JUNE 2011

ANDREW G. WERMUTH, Denver moved to Colorado after many years in Cambridge, Mass. He is now head of communications (documentary film production, web, and marketing strategy) for an international nonprofit, IDE. IDE is focused on poverty alleviation through low-cost water access and market linkages for small farmers throughout Asia, Africa, and Central America.

87 NEXT REUNION: JUNE 2012

TED CLARK, Minneapolis, operates Ted Machine, a company dedicated to custom machining of metals and plastic. Last fall he was in Door County and spent time at Björklunden.

90 NEXT REUNION: JUNE 19-21, 2009

KRISTIN M. HOWARD, Madison, Wis., wrote, "Life in Madison continues to be very good! I'm teaching sixth graders this year and enjoying their enthusiasm. I've also been busy with a new project at church, where we're experimenting with a coffeehouse atmosphere to reach out to people who are uncomfortable in a more traditional setting. On the family front, I finally persuaded my parents to move to Wisconsin from Nebraska, and so far it's been great to have them just 45 minutes away. Last June, I celebrated the arrival of $4 gasoline with a 3,000-mile road trip. Highlights included catching up with friends in North Carolina, relaxing at the beach in Maine, and sightseeing in D.C."

93 NEXT REUNION: JUNE 2012

SARAH E. MEYER, Falls Church, Va., has been living in the Washington, D.C. area for nearly 15 years with Ricardo and their two perfect cats. They enjoy travel and have a Web site: <http://ricvieira.smugmug.com>

94 NEXT REUNION: JUNE 18-20, 2010

OWEN J. BERENDES, Appleton, Wis., is a stay-at-home dad during the day and spends his nights teaching or playing music. He has a daughter, Sarah, age two. He wrote, "once the stay-at-home dad gig is no longer a full time job, I'll open a small woodwinds repair shop. I've also been catching up with many classmates on Facebook."

KRISTIN E. GRIBBLE, Falmouth, Mass., received a Ph.D. in biological oceanography in 2006 from the MIT/Woods Hole Oceanographic Institution Joint Program. Since then she has been working as a post-doctoral scientist at the Marine Biological Laboratory in Woods Hole.

JAMES F. GUCKENBERG, Stevens Point, Wis., wrote, "I still play the drums whenever possible, and I love being a dad."

ELIZABETH S. HUNTER, San Diego, Calif., is in her ninth year of teaching eighth grade physical science at Lewis Middle School in San Diego. She has been married since 2000 and has two children, a daughter (five) and a son (one).

JASON B. LOWERY, Madison, Wis., works at the Wisconsin Dept. of Agriculture, Trade & Consumer Protection as a hydrogeologist. He has three children (one son, two daughters). He is a wrestling referee during the winter. His hobbies include spending time with the family, playing cards, and discussing religion and politics.

ADAM G. NEWMAN and Sara Staffeldt Newman '95, Brookfield, Wis., have two children, Braeden (eight) and Madeleine (five). Sara is a social worker in the heart center at Milwaukee Children's Hospital. Adam works in commercial banking. Adam wrote, "You may ask how a PoliSci major/English minor (equivalency) ended up in banking — I found a job that requires golfing, sailing, and attending sporting events. No real complaints. Lots of travel. Enjoying a LarryU fantasy football league. Braeden and I are working to earn our black belts together in karate. Madeleine is a future Connie — sings herself to sleep every night."

KENT D. PAULSEN, Green Bay, Wis., is director of choirs at St. Norbert College, and music coordinator, organist, and choir director at Calvary Lutheran Church. He and his wife have two daughters, Elisabeth (10) and Gretchen (six). He wrote, "Between my work, my kids, and side gigs I keep quite busy, but life is great!"

STEPHEN G. SWITZER, Roscoe, Ill., wrote, "I had a landscaping business for 10 years, went back to school to become a nurse, and have since worked in the emergency setting (various trauma centers). I got married in 2006 to Katie (also an ER RN), and we started a real estate investment company. Recently we opened a dog boarding kennel on my farmette in Roscoe, Ill., called Stonebridge Kennels. I've been accepted to law school and am deferring admission until the kennel is running smoothly."

PATRICK R. WARFIELD and KIRSTEN R. LIES-WARFIELD, Arlington, Va., have been married for 14 years. Kirsten is in the U.S. Army Band, Pershing's Own, and was recently promoted to Sergeant First Class. Patrick is an assistant professor of musicology at Georgetown University where he teaches courses in American popular music. He has several publications, including a soon-to-be-released collection of six Sousa marches.

SHAD R. WENZLAFF, Madison, Wis., wrote, "I am a lecturer at Edgewood College and MATC Madison, the president of the Madison Piano Teachers Associated, a piano and voice teacher for more than 50 private students, and a volunteer for Wisconsin Public Television. I live the rich life I've always dreamed of...the rich life that we were so aptly prepared to live. I coordinate with Kathleen Callahan '99, who is the auction coordinator for Public Television in Madison. She remarked over lunch last week that she knows of few Lawrentians who are only slightly less over-committed than myself. It's a labor of love!"

LAURA CORNING WOLTMAN, Appleton, Wis., has been teaching music part-time in the Appleton Area School District since 1996. She and her husband, Garry, have two sons, Nathaniel (six) and David (two).

When pop superstar Madonna began her recent tour, the work of CHRISTOPHER OAKLEY '85 went along with her. Oakley was hired to create animated images inspired by the artwork of the late Keith Haring to play during Madonna's performance of "Into the Groove." Working in Flash, Oakley devoted four weeks of 16-hour days to animating and directing the project.

On tour, Oakley's animation was projected on screens that were five stories tall. In addition to a career that includes more than two decades as an animator, Oakley works on commissioned portrait and landscape paintings. He recently moved from Los Angeles to Asheville, N.C. where he hopes to establish himself in the art world.
