Shall we consider your standardized test results in our admission review?

Lawrence does not require standardized test scores in its admission or scholarship review, giving you the choice whether to submit your ACT and/or SAT scores. (Read more about our approach at lawrence.edu/admissions.) Exception: If your native language or primary language of instruction is not English, we do require you to submit a test of English language proficiency (ACT, SAT, TOEFL, IELTS).

- Consider my ACT and/or SAT results     Do not consider my ACT and/or SAT results

If your parents, other family members or friends have attended Lawrence University, please list their names, class year, and relationship to you.

For music applicants only

If you have indicated an interest in any of our degree options with a major in music, (including a BA in music), please complete the following four steps to complete your application.

1. Complete this section

Primary instrument/voice type and years of private study _____

Please list any other instruments and years of private study _____

_____

If piano is not your primary interest, please rate your piano proficiency:  no background  beginner  intermediate  advanced

2. Register for an audition (lawrence.edu/admissions/apply)

3. Have a music teacher submit a Lawrence University Music Teacher Evaluation form* on your behalf.

4. Submit a music resume* that lists and/or describes:

- any private teachers or music directors, along with their contact information
- solo literature you have studied
- any appearances as a recital and/or ensemble soloist (enclose programs or copies, if available)
- any prizes, honors, awards, contest ratings or other special recognition you have received in music
- any study of music theory
- any experience with music composition, arranging or improvisation
- any choral and/or instrumental experiences (school, church, regional/state and summer camp) you have had within the past four years (please include conductor name, if appropriate)
- any paid employment in music performance and/or music teaching
- any foreign language study
- any additional information that would be helpful in evaluating your application for music study at Lawrence University.
