NASM Transfer Release Form

(For Transfer Students Only)

The Code of Ethics of the National Association of Schools of Music (NASM) states that "a transferring student who has not completed a degree program can be considered eligible for financial aid during the first term of enrollment in the new institution only if the music executive of the school from which the student is transferring specifically approves…Approval is to be sought prior to the offering of the financial award by the institution to which the student may transfer…"

In accordance with this code, please complete Part I below. Then submit this form to the music executive at your school (that is, the Dean of the school, the Director of Financial aid, or a similar, appropriate official), and ask them to complete Part II. This form should be submitted with your application, but a signed copy may be faxed (920-832-6782) to the Lawrence University Admission office in the interest of a timely response.

No merit-based scholarship may be granted by Lawrence University until this completed form is received. Because we make scholarship offers at the time of admission, no admission decision may be made until this completed form is received. As a courtesy to both your home institution and to Lawrence, please submit this completed form by the transfer application deadline.
