Response Form

I was really angry with Rachel because she stole my boyfriend, Jack. I did send her some angry messages, but it was only because I was mad and couldn't believe that she would do this to me. I figure she deserved to be bothered a little bit because she did an awful thing to me. Jack talked to me after a while and told me that I needed to stop, so I did. Even though I sent messages I wouldn't have wrecked her stuff. I did stop by her room on Friday around 1:40 because I needed to borrow her roommate's textbook. I even stopped by Tom's room on my way out, and she saw that I had the book.
