

Summer Volunteer Opportunity Grant (SVOG) Program

Lawrence University

The SVOG was initially established in 1991 through a $32,000 grant over two years from the Helen Daniels Bader Foundation to support summer volunteer and community service work. Helen Daniels Bader was a graduate of Milwaukee-Downer College. David Bader, her son and administrator of the foundation funds, was kind enough to support grants to students interested in projects throughout the world, even though the foundation was established to target service needs in the Milwaukee area, and continued funding for a couple of years. Since that time, the university has supported the program through the Volunteer and Community Service Center operating budget. The program was established to provide both programmatic support and to replace lost summer wages that would be expected of students in order to contribute to their educational expenses. Grants applications are solicited each year and are awarded based upon the strength of the application, a personal interview with a selection committee composed of faculty, students, and staff, and the availability of funds. Students are expected to design a service project or to secure acceptance to participate in an existing service program. Applicants must supply information from a site supervisor or local officials acknowledging the need for the service work and willingness to work with and support our student. Once a grant is awarded, a portion of those funds granted is supplied prior to the service experience to assist with program expenses. Funds may be allocated to provide supplies and materials for the project, to support living expenses on site, for transportation, and to replace lost earning potential during the summer months. Upon completion, the student must provide a written report of her or his work and must participate in a public presentation of their experience on campus in order to receive the remainder of the funding.

Year	Applicants/ Awards	Name	Project Site	Description	Grant Amount
2012		Jamie Cartwright	Sexual Health and Reproductive Education (SHARE) Program Kigali, Rwanda	SHARE is sponsored by the Health Development Initiative, partner to GlobeMed. The program seeks to educate Rwandan youth about safe sex and the prevention of sexually transmitted diseases, specifically HIV/AIDS. Jamie and Kaleigh will educate Rwandan youth about sexual health through teaching lessons, building youth programs, and reaching out to the larger public. They will seek to enhance local communication about healthy lifestyles.
		Kaleigh Post
		Cayla Rosché	Boys and Girls Club of the Fox Cities Appleton, WI	Boys & Girls Club Music classes, taught by Cayla Rosche, will focus on building a consistent curriculum that will engage underprivileged children in the world of music. Cayla seeks to provide children with the knowledge and the enthusiasm required to learn about music.

				She will also advise club staff on how to better use their arts program funding.
		Tammy Tran	Let's Get Ready Queens New York, NY	Let's Get Ready, is a not for profit organization that aims to provide inner city high school students with the resources and support needed to reach higher education. As a coach with Let's Get Ready, Tammy will be providing role modeling on a one on one level with students, teaching critical reading courses for SAT prep, and organizing and implementing workshops to prepare students for the college admissions process.
2011		Hilary Haskell	Camino Seguro Guatemala City, Guatemala	Camino Seguro (Safe Passage) provides a safe alternative for children living around and working in the Guatemala City garbage dump. Hilary will assist teachers in daily activities including helping children with homework, assisting during English class, and extra-curricular activities. She will give extra support, positive reinforcement, and encourage students to gain the skills they need to stay in school and improve their lives.
		Tonya St. Julien	Love Volunteers Dakar, Senegal	Tonya will volunteer at an orphanage based in Dakar where she will work with HIV-positive children, street children, and orphans. She will teach, feed, counsel, facilitate, and organize recreational activities with the children. Love Volunteers is a program that works toward empowering exploited people through the implementation of education.
		Minh Nguyen	Volunteer for Peace Vietnam Hanoi and Son La, Vietnam	The Good School – Good Planet project aims to bring education to the mountainous region near Vietnam's capital city, in the town of Son La. Minh will participate in work camps, where he will play with the children, acclimate them to their new school, and help teach them Vietnamese. He will also participate in events to fundraise and recruit members for the group.
		Eliana Socha	Sustainable Roots Cosanga, Ecuador	Eliana will be running an after-school and evening classes in science and English-learning for Sustainable Roots. In addition, Eliana will also assist environmental education in the community by maintaining Cosanga's primary school's gardens and greenhouse. Sustainable Roots is dedicated to environmental preservation and sustainable development in communities of Latin America while maintaining their cultural pride and heritage.
		Marika Straw	Human Rights Center	Marika will be an intern at the Human Rights Center located at the Minneapolis, MN	University of Minnesota. As an intern, she will assist the programs This is My Home, a curriculum program, a human rights documents library and Partners in Closing the Gap, which aims to close the gap between schools and communities by linking teachers, students, and parents in community partnerships to promote racial healing and justice. Marika also will host and plan events for 10-12 visiting international human rights professionals.

2010		Melinda Beyer	Handi Children Outreach Home Accra, Ghana	Melinda worked at a Ghanaian orphanage with an agriculture program at the orphanage, helping with farming, food collection and storage by clearing and fertilizing land, planting and nurturing crops, teaching farming techniques to older children and staff, assisting with purchasing stock, caring for, fencing, and moving stock. She also assisted in the daily activities with the orphanage.
		Jared Gebel	Ali Forney Center New York, NY	Jared interned at the Ali Forney Center's administrative office working to provide housing, resources, and services to homeless lesbian, gay, bisexual, and transgender youth, ages 16-24. He provided administrative assistance, organized benefits and fundraisers, and co-facilitated and developed workshops for clients at several of their sites.	$1800
		Katherine Jubert	Sonidos de la Tierra Paraguay	Katherine taught flute and vocal lessons while directing a wind ensemble, flute choir, and vocal choir. She worked with a Paraguayan school that keeps at-risk youth off the streets, in an underserved area where children have no opportunity for formal education. Katherine brought North American musical experience to children who would otherwise not have it.	$800
		Laura Streyle	Growing Together (collaboration with Community Garden Partnership) Appleton, WI	Laura created a program called "Growing Together" in collaboration with the Community Garden Partnership in Appleton. Growing Together aimed to work with teachers, English Language Learner students and their parents to create and nurture part of a garden. They exchanged language and meaning over the common activity of getting hands dirty. Laura planned lessons varying from planting to painting to writing all centered around the garden.	$600
2009		Rebecca Bohl	Guatemala Human Rights Commission Washington, D.C.	Rebecca Bohl '10 worked as an intern for the Guatemala Human Rights Commission in Washington D.C. Rebecca helped to provide support for Guatemalan families forced to leave their homes due to violence and economic disparity. She helped translate and edit	$1,350

				biweekly publications, organize events such as fundraisers and delegations to Guatemala, assisted staff with affidavits for political asylum cases, and learned how a non-profit organization functions.
		J.B. Sivanich	Pragati Educational Foundation Bangalore, India	J.B. Sivanich '10 worked with the Pragati Educational Foundation in Bangalore, India teaching English to academically talented children from economically disadvantaged backgrounds. He taught his own English class for two hours everyday as a part of an after-school program. J.B. acted as both a mentor and a teacher to these students, helping them prepare for entering college.	$1000
2008		Kaileigh Arnold	World Food Programme (WFP) Bangkok, Thailand India	Kaileigh will work in the administrative office of the WFP, shadowing the director of WFP in Asia and will learn how to interface with other governments and country directors in order to install food programs in different countries. In the field in India, she will be setting up and monitoring food and education programs that provide incentive to families to send their children to school in impoverished areas.	$1750
		Harjinder Bedi	World Wide Opportunities on Organic Farms Anne-Marie International School Accra, Ghana	Harjinder will work as a volunteer at a private school that provides access to quality education for students usually unable to receive it. He will also travel to a rural farming village to volunteer on the farm and study traditional drumming in rural Ghana.	$2000
		Megan Bjella	Sustainable Lawrence University Garden	Megan will manage and maintain Lawrence's garden along with two other summer gardeners. In addition, Megan will develop a garden-learning curriculum for middle school students and holding community outreach programs in the garden this summer and into the coming academic year. Her summer will focus on creating sustainable relationships between the Lawrence garden and the Appleton community.	$500
		Jamie Gajewski	Su Espacio Community Center Atenas, Costa Rica	Jamie will be combining her love of dance and passion to teach through activity and play. At the center, she will teach weekly dance classes to Costa Rican children between the ages of 4 and 13. She will also teach English classes to both children and adults, using bilingual strategies and interactive activities to help her students learn a new language. She hopes to learn more about the Costa Rican way of life and draw on her experiences in Costa Rica when she student teaches during the Fall Semester after graduation.	$1550
2007	3/3	Tungtaeya Abdel-Majeed	Accord Language School Paris, France	Taeya will be using her exceptional dance skills to teach high school aged children about French race relations through various literary and musical movements, specifically those found in La Negritude and the	$1500

				Harlem Renaissance.
		Nicole Fisher	Arkansas Foodbank Network Little Rock, Arkansas	Nicole will spend 7-10 days volunteering at the Arkansas Foodbank Network. While there she will spend eight hours each day sorting and stocking food, serving food at meal times, and doing some light clerical work. She is also interested in pursuing an honors project on regional identity next year and feels this experience will be extremely beneficial not only personally, but academically as well.	$1500
		Heath Gordon	Habitat for Humanity Braja, Portugal	As a volunteer for Habitat for Humanity, Heath will spend ten days volunteering in Braja, Portugal on a Global Village build.	$1500
2006	3/3	Kelsey Lutz	Archeological Fieldwork and Public Outreach Paccasamayo, Peru	Kelsey spent two months in Peru as part of an archeological team led by a Lawrence alum. While there she excavated domestic buildings from the 13 th century. She also worked to educate the community about the research the team was doing.	$900
		Danielle Simandl	Chamber Ensemble Coaching Marquette, Michigan	During the summer Danielle coached chamber ensembles for six weeks because the local music camp was closed for the summer months.	$400
		Chelsea Wagner	Free Arts for Abused Children Minneapolis, Minnesota	As Program Coordinator, Chelsea spent the summer planning sessions for the YES to Art program and organizing a large scale event called Free Arts Day for over 100 children. Additionally she engaged in administrative duties for the organization as well.	$800
2005	11/11	Megan Allen	Cristo Rey Community Center, Lansing, Michigan	As a Youth Service Coordinator, Megan served meals, planned and led games and activities, and supervised sixty children in the summer break program, serving low-income children in a predominantly Hispanic area that included recently immigrated families.	$500
		Kenneth Alvord	Cap Hatian, Haiti	Kenneth worked as a youth activities coordinator with Hearts for Haiti, an organization that focuses much of its efforts on youth services. He planned activities, tutored, and helped to construct a medical facility in the area. He also conducted interviews and research related to civil unrest and political instability.	$1,700
		Freya D'Almeida	Center for Communication and Training, Colombo, Sri Lanka	Freya interviewed children of the tsunami-affected areas of the country in an effort to determine what still needed to be done to bring relief and aid to the victims. Freya also worked with another Lawrentian to create a film documentary and still photographic record regarding the tsunami and its impact upon the people of Sri Lanka.	$500
		Nora Hertel	Madison, Wisconsin	Working with non-commercial, listener-supported radio station WORT-FM, Nora served as an assistant music librarian organizing the station's collection. In addition, she worked with the station's volunteer	$1,300 coordinator to prepare for and staff outreach events at festivals and events throughout the summer.

	AWARDED FUNDING; DID NOT PARTICIPATE IN PROJECT	Laura Milewski	Klipkop Wildlife Sanctuary, Bronkhorstspuit, Gauteng Province, South Africa	Laura was hoping to managing and maintain the sanctuary through game assessment and reporting, anti-poaching practices, bird field studies, and collection, transportation, and distribution of meat donations for the Sanctuary's vulture population. Laura was granted funding but did not participate in the program because we could not fully fund the opportunity for her.	$2,100
		Gayatri Naidu	Lima, Peru	Gayatri worked as a volunteer with Cross Cultural Solutions, an organization that works to alleviate some of the stress caused by political and economic strife by improving the quality of life for the poor rural class in Peru. She assisted with local daycare centers and facilitated athletic and educational activities for children living in impoverished areas so their parents could work.	$2,000
		Jessica Patenaude	Emergency Shelter of the Fox Valley, Appleton, Wisconsin	Jessica spent her summer volunteering at the Emergency Shelter of the Fox Valley, a facility for homeless families and individuals. She served as a receptionist, secured the shelter, helped residents and guests, provided childcare, and assisted residents with finding employment and housing.	$1,000
	AWARDED FUNDING; DID NOT PARTICIPATE IN PROJECT	Jared Robertson	Jacmel, Haiti	With support of Professor Janet Anthony, Jared was to participate in a program that offered lessons and one-on-one mentoring to children in Haiti, provide camp counseling services, and foster higher aspirations to disadvantaged children through music. Jared was awarded funding, but due to the political unrest in Haiti, Professor Anthony did not take students there.	$700
		Katherine Stanton	Washington, D.C.	Katy spent the summer as an intern in the office U.S. Senator Russ Feingold, responding to constituents, answering phones and mail, performing data entry, attending legislative hearings, and doing research.	$1,500
	AWARDED FUNDING; DID NOT PARTICIPATE IN PROJECT	Sarah Tochiki	Jacmel, Haiti	With support of Professor Janet Anthony, Sarah was to participate in a program that offered lessons and one-on-one mentoring to children in Haiti, provide camp counseling services, and foster higher aspirations to disadvantaged children through music. Sarah was awarded funding, but due to the political unrest in Haiti, Professor Anthony did not take students there.	$700

Year	Applicants/ Awards	Name	Project/Site	Description	Grant Amount
2004	1/1	Tatiana Plaxina	Library Serials Database Development Appleton Public Library	Tatiana developed a database for the public library to enable cataloging and searching for serials and periodicals within the library.	$1,200
2003	5/3	Katherine Hoyme	Youth With A Mission Chennai, India	Katherine engaged in a project that served children living in poverty in inner-city settings that focused on AIDS education and prevention, combating poverty and enriching childhood.	$1,500
		Ann Miller	The Tampa Urban Project: Finding God in the City Tampa, Florida	Ann provided computer instruction and access at an urban day-camp in an inner-city setting and studied racism, poverty, and other issues from a theological perspective.	$800
		Andrea Wright	Stree Mikti Sanghatana, Parisar Vikas project Bombay, India	Andrea provided entrepreneurial support, education and encouragement to rag picker women in India; provided daycare, identity cards, and support around environmental and social issues and personal safety.	$1,700
2002	10/9	Molly Bartholomew	National Association of Anorexia and Associated Disorders (ANAD) Highland Park, Illinois	Molly facilitated educational programming for both sufferers and general public, assisted health care professionals and provided assistance with research studies.	$250
		Kora Buettner	ProMujer Foundation for Sustainable Development Bolivia	Kora worked on a project that focused on women's development through leadership, education, literacy, sexual education, health, micro-enterprise development, human rights, and women's rights.	$1,600
		Jennifer Dieter	Illinois PIRG Chicago, Illinois	Jennifer served as a grant writer and development advocate to promote and fund the Illinois PIRG.	$900
		Natalie Hall	Music Camp Volunteer Holy Trinity School Port -au-Prince, Haiti	With support of Professor Janet Anthony, Natalie participated in a program that offered lessons and one-on-one mentoring to children in Haiti, provided camp counseling services, and fostered higher aspirations to disadvantaged children through music.	$700
		Danata Janofsky	Fisheries Biology Intern Research Program, Moie Marine Biology Laboratory Sarasota, Florida	Danata engaged in computer data entry, shipboard fish tagging, care and maintenance of captive red snappers, fish hyperbaric chamber experiments, and fish necropsies.	$900
		Sarah Krile	New American Collaborative	Sarah interviewed members and non-members of the foundation, implemented a new mentoring program as part of Leadership Development	$1,500

			Amherst H. Wilder Foundation St. Paul, Minnesota	Task Force, and supported four task forces providing services to new Americans.
		Yasmine Rainford	Peace Project in Jamaica Urban and Rural Jamaica	Yasmine created and implemented a summer program for inner-city youth to encourage moral development and conflict resolution skills; patterned after a summer camp, program operates in city for two weeks at a time, with rural and cultural immersion. Other Lawrentians participated as facilitators.	$1,350
		Jenny West	Holy Trinity Summer Music Camp Haiti	With support of Professor Janet Anthony, Jenny participated in a program that offered lessons and one-on-one mentoring to children in Haiti, provided camp counseling services, and fostered higher aspirations to disadvantaged children through music.	$500
		Stephen Venugopal	Gunderson Baby Home Antipolo, Philippines	Stephen worked directly with infants, toddlers, and preschoolers in the home and engaged in some maintenance and other manual labor keeping up the home.	$1,300
2001	6/9	Christopher Anderson	Bringing Russia and Outagamie Closer Together American Red Cross Appleton	Christopher worked through the Red Cross and Appleton's sister city Kurgan, Russia to foster a helping relationship in developing emergency preparedness and services in Kurgan.	$2,000
		Sandra Blick	Mote Marine Laboratory Internship Marine Mammal Program Sarasota, Florida	Sandra engaged in a project that involved marine photography and data management, equipment maintenance, and aerial and land surveys	$2,500
		Sandra Gresl	The Colombia Project US Committee for Refugees Washington, DC	Sandra served as internship coordinator and facilitated research on refugee situations, provided advocacy support to refugees, and raised public awareness through educational programming.	$1,600
		Sarah Phelps	Holy Trinity School Music Camp Port au Prince & Leogane, Haiti	With support of Professor Janet Anthony, Sarah participated in a program that offered lessons and one-on-one mentoring to children in Haiti, provided camp counseling services, and fostered higher aspirations to disadvantaged children through music.	$1,000
		Gustavo Setrini	Holy Trinity School Music Camp Port au Prince & Leogane, Haiti	With support of Professor Janet Anthony, Gustavo participated in a program that offered lessons and one-on-one mentoring to children in Haiti, provided camp counseling services, and fostered higher aspirations to disadvantaged children through music.	$800
		Douglas Wilber	Holy Trinity School Music Camp Port au Prince & Leogane,	With support of Professor Janet Anthony, Douglas participated in a program that offered lessons and one-on-one mentoring to children in Haiti, provided camp counseling services, and fostered higher aspirations	$900

			Haiti	to disadvantaged children through music.
2000	7/7	Eric Boehmer	Medical Mission to Northeastern Brazil Camaragibe, Brazil	Eric served as an assistant in a medical clinic providing medical care to rural areas and health education to adults and children.	$1,520
		Tom Clowes	Holy Trinity School Music Camp Port au Prince & Leogane, Haiti	With support of Professor Janet Anthony, Tom participated in a program that offered lessons and one-on-one mentoring to children in Haiti, provided camp counseling services, and fostered higher aspirations to disadvantaged children through music.	$600
		Bilguissa Diallo	Education in Rural Areas Labe, Guinea	Bilguissa engaged in a project to foster educational growth and promote increased attention to educational opportunity for both boys and girls in rural West Africa.	$650
		Beth Halpern	Habitat for Humanity Americus, Georgia	Beth worked with Habitat international headquarters building all summer and preparing for the President Jimmy Carter national build in September.	$370
		Jason Hansen	Holy Trinity School Music Camp Port au Prince & Leogane, Haiti	With support of Professor Janet Anthony, Jason participated in a program that offered lessons and one-on-one mentoring to children in Haiti, provided camp counseling services, and fostered higher aspirations to disadvantaged children through music.	$660
		Michael O'Brien	Holy Trinity School Music Camp, Port au Prince & Leogane, Haiti	With support of Professor Janet Anthony, Michael participated in a program that offered lessons and one-on-one mentoring to children in Haiti, provided camp counseling services, and fostered higher aspirations to disadvantaged children through music.	$700
		Abby Wakefield	Holy Trinity School Music Camp Port au Prince & Leogane, Haiti	With support of Professor Janet Anthony, Abby participated in a program that offered lessons and one-on-one mentoring to children in Haiti, provided camp counseling services, and fostered higher aspirations to disadvantaged children through music.	$700
1999	7/14	Craig Hauschildt	British Brass Band Salvation Army, Appleton Corps Community Center Appleton	Craig worked on a project to establish a British Brass Band for Appleton Salvation Army for youth in the Fox Valley.	$1,000
		Kari Heikkila	Colorado Therapeutic Riding Center Longmont, Colorado	Kari volunteered with Colorado Therapeutic Riding Center, serving in the office, at special events, in the lesson ring, and with horse care and selection, promoting physical, psychological, and social wellbeing of people with disabilities.	$1,850
		Teresa Kessenich	Manatee Research Project Mote Marine Laboratory Sarasota, Florida	Teresa researched and promoted conservation of the manatee population, promoted the adopt-a-manatee program, and worked on data collection and processing.	$900

		Kara Neymeyer	Walker's Point Youth and Family Center Youth Runaway Shelter Milwaukee, Wisconsin	Kara staffed, mentored, counseled, and provided support to youth runaways, serving overnight and on weekdays in shelter.	$1,850.00
		Shazore Shah	Holy Trinity School Music Camp Port au Prince & Leogane, Haiti	With support of Professor Janet Anthony, Shazore participated in a program that offered lessons and one-on-one mentoring to children in Haiti, provided camp counseling services, and fostered higher aspirations to disadvantaged children through music.	$800
		Natalia Smith	Mazahuas Project State of Mexico	Natalia engaged in a project dealing with poverty, development, agriculture, and indigenous populations in rural Mexico under the supervision of Asesoria y Desarrollo Rural, a non-governmental organization based in Mexico City.	$600
		Justin Stacker	Sartori Hospital Physical Therapy Volunteer Cedar Falls, Iowa	Justin provided rehabilitation services and volunteer support to patients in therapy at Sartori Hospital, services that the hospital could not afford any other way.	$500
1998	3/6	Kathleen Olvera	Translation and Fundraising Projects of Humanitarian Aid Chiapas, Mexico	Kathleen organized and sent food and necessities caravans to remote locations, served on the fundraising campaign for educational program about project in Chiapas, translated three books, and staffed the office.	$2,250
		Ben Tilghman	Steppiong Stones Children's Museum Norwalk, Connecticut	Ben served as an intern for exhibits and programs in the developmental and planning stages of creation of largest children's museum between New York and Boston; designed exhibits and worked with children to test ideas.	$1,750
		Megan Walsh	Sarah's Inn Domestic Abuse Center Oak Park, Illinois	Megan engaged in a combination of administrative work and direct work with staff and victims of abuse; phone triage; provided resources to victims; worked with children in programming and counseling.	$2,000
1997	2/14	Jessica Holden	Internship with Two Medical Teams in the Philippines Rizal, Philippines	Jessica worked with Filipino women in a midwifery clinic in poverty stricken area.	$2,500
		Kara Richards	Joshua House Residential Care facility for Children removed from Abusive Homes Appleton	Kara served as a houseparent in a home for abused and neglected children, established by the Child Protection Agency of Health and Human Services due to a shortage of foster homes; worked with children ages newborn to 13 years.	$2,500
1996	3/6	Steve Gruber	Habitat for Humanity, Mathematics Tutor, and Battered Women's Shelter	Steve worked on 3 projects: building Habitat houses, tutoring children, and working in a battered women's shelter. Shelter work included physical improvements to the facility to make it safer for children and more stable	$2,000

			Quetzaltengagno and Cantel, Guatemala	structurally, as well as work with children and victims of abuse.
		Andrea Nichols	Intern American Cancer Society Appleton	Andrea served as a field assistant with fundraising projects, worked on Rely for Life events, prepared news releases, PSAs and articles for newsletters, and worked with media to promote Cancer Society.	$2,000
		Lora Schultz	Intern Villa Hope Residential Services Appleton	Lora interned in a home for 30 men with developmental challenges or brain trauma, corrections' delinquents, or men with mental illnesses. Served as staff assistant, mentor and friend to patients.	$2,000
1995	No records
1994	4/7	Stacy Czerniak	Co operational Aid Development FUNDIAC Managua, Nicaragua	Stacy spent half the day in a soup kitchen feeding malnourished children and providing arts and crafts activities and other educational enrichment; spent the afternoon in a woman's cooperative working on building self-esteem, life skills training, etc.	$2,500
		Scott Nguyen	Fox Valley AIDS Project Resource Library Development Appleton	Scott organized and cataloged materials collected over time in the AIDS Resource Center (ARC) of Wisconsin.	$1,060
		Ben Palchick	Human Heart Exhibit Fox Cities Children's Museum Appleton	Ben created and built a Human Heart exhibit for Fox Cities Children's Museum.	$1,940
		Erica Rand	Puerto Rican Cultural Center Chicago, Illinois	Erica served on the staff of a summer camp for children to teach self-determination, self-sufficiency, and self-development.	$2,500
1993	3/8	Jana Gearhart	Children in Protective Custody St. Louis, Missouri	Jana volunteered in a small state-licensed daycare facility with emphasis on the arts.	$2,164
		Edward Immler	Disaster Relief American Red Cross Appleton	Edward prepared a disaster relief plan and computer program to track resources, resource allocation, and the needs of victims in a disaster.	$2,164
		Emily Murray	House of the Good Shepherd Children's Program Chicago, Illinois	Emily volunteered in a shelter for victims of abuse (mothers and children). She organized children's library, provided summer activities for children, and engaged in short term projects for center.	$1,880
1992	4/13	Fleming Elsberry	Bronx Episcopal AIDS Ministry	Fleming worked with a local population on AIDS education, sex education, and provided assistance in the area with highest per-capita AIDS	$2,596

			Bronx, New York	occurrence in the U.S.
		Margaret Jenks	Housing Opportunities Made Equitable Holland, Michigan	Margaret identified homes of people living at or below poverty level in western Michigan in serious need of repair then supervised the crew to perform work to bring the homes up to code.	$2,500
		Yiannis Miralis	Cultural Musical Appreciation Nicoria, Cyprus, Greece	Yiannis worked to revive cultural traditions among Cypriot peoples in Psematismenos through education and uncovering traditional music and dance.	$2,450
		Kelly Swett	ART REACH Milwaukee Milwaukee, Wisconsin	Kelly developed accessibility to arts for people with disabilities; created audio interpretation of visual arts exhibition and developed a tactile exhibit for seeing-impaired patrons.	$1,562
1991	4/9	Anthony Alioto	Walker's Point Center for the Arts Milwaukee, Wisconsin	Anthony worked with a children's program focused on cultural and artistic development and building self-esteem among at-risk neighborhood children; assisted with office administration and exhibit curating.	$3,000
		Suzanne Barrow	Mead House for Troubled Youth Appleton	Suzanne developed an independent living skills training program in a home for abused adolescent girls.	$1,265
		Daniel Barry	Wau Ecology Institute Papua, New Guinea	Daniel engaged in rainforest conservation and research, worked with indigenous populations and taught about conservation and activism in an effort to challenge corporate interests and empower populations without land holdings who depended upon the land. He also taught farmers ecologically sound means of farming.	$3,000
		Jessica Zinda	Teen Recovery Center San Diego, California	Jessica taught pre-natal care, child raising practices, decision-making skills, family planning and health to young mothers in a drug recovery program.	$2,425