

GENDER STUDIES – DEGREE CHECKLIST FOR MAJORS

The Gender Studies Major requires ten (6-credit) courses.

Core Courses (5 courses)

Term taken:

- _____ GEST 100: Introduction to Gender Studies
- _____ GEST 240: Methods in Gender Studies
- _____ GEST 300: Queer Theory OR
 GEST 301: Intersectional Feminist Theories
- _____ GEST 110: Gender & Feminism in Historical Perspective OR
 GEST 350: Anthropology of Gender
- _____ GEST 180: Biology of Reproduction OR
 GEST 270: Psychology of Gender

Elective Courses (4 courses)

Term taken:

- _____ _____
- _____ _____
- _____ _____
- _____ _____

Electives may be any course in GEST or cross-listed in GEST that meet the following:

- At least one elective must be at the 400 level or above (not including capstone)
- Up to two of your electives may be gender component courses; requires permission from of GEST advisor (see Request for GEST Credit form)
- One of your electives may be an Independent Study course (not including capstone); requires permission of GEST advisor
- Extra core courses (see above) beyond your requirements may count as electives.

Senior Capstone Experience (1)

Term(s) completed:

- _____ _____

- Capstone Experiences must be directed by GEST faculty and approved by the GEST Advisory Committee. Capstones may be an Independent Study, Internship, cross-disciplinary project (including dual-major projects), or an extension of an upper level course. See Capstone Proposal forms, or talk to your advisor.