The Boynton Society

Björklunden enjoys a loyal following among Door County residents and visitors, as well as Lawrence University alumni, parents and friends. The Boynton Society was formed to celebrate Björklunden and to secure financial backing for its programs. Those who support the mission of Björklunden make the Lawrence University Student Seminar programs possible for over 650 students each year as well as provide opportunities for the Lawrence University Conservatory of Music to perform in Door County.

Many Boynton Society members have attended summer seminars or spent time at the lodge during their years at Lawrence. Anyone who has been to Björklunden would agree that the experience can be life changing. Boynton Society members help to make sure that visitors of all ages will be able to enjoy the treasure that awaits as they venture into the “birch forest by the water” for years to come.

*“To come to Björklunden is to come home.
Here the soul is at rest
and the spirit awakened.”*

—Judy Roy

“Björklunden exudes an air of welcome, inquiry, and the fragrance of cedars while promising an encounter with interesting, knowledgeable people. I would not change a thing.” —Anonymous

Since Donald and Winifred Boynton graciously bequeathed the Björklunden estate to Lawrence University in 1963, it has continued to be a place of inspiration in countless ways.

Björklunden is a sanctuary for all

Björklunden allows the liberal arts mission to be extended through weekend student-faculty seminars and retreats during the academic year.

“This place, a source of serenity and stimulation, had its doors opened to me as a freshman by the hands of donors. I am grateful to those who were able to help bring me here.”

—Zach Jaeger '14

Why join the Boynton Society?

The programming and experiences available at Björklunden promote the exploration of ideas and issues that matter to us all, placing us on the rewarding path of life-long learning. Together—alumni, volunteers and friends—we can ensure the lasting success and future of Björklunden. Membership in the Boynton Society begins at $250, but gifts at all levels are welcome. We ask that you help us continue to offer life-changing experiences for students of all ages and walks of life who visit Björklunden.
